A hand-drawn wireframe of a website layout. At the top, there is a horizontal navigation bar with five rectangular buttons labeled "Home", "About", "Project", "Resume", and "Contact". Below the navigation bar, there are three horizontal lines representing a header or sub-header area. The main content area is divided into three sections. On the left, there is a vertical sidebar with two rectangular boxes, each containing an asterisk (*). Below these boxes are two more horizontal lines. In the center, there is a large rectangular area, possibly a main content block or a placeholder for an image. On the right, there is a vertical sidebar with three horizontal lines, each preceded by a small square icon containing an 'X'. At the bottom of the page, there are four small circular icons with an 'X' inside, arranged horizontally on the left, and a single circular icon with an 'X' inside on the right, followed by a horizontal line.
